TO HOST INFORMATIONAL FORUM

The Miami-Dade County Historic Preservation Board, The Dade Heritage Trust, Inc., Vizcaya Museum and Gardens Trust, and The Villagers, Inc. will host an informational forum to educate and inform Miami-Dade County voters on the 2004 Building Better Communities Bond Program and its role in supporting the future of Historic Preservation in Miami-Dade County.

When: Tuesday, October 19, 2004, 6:30 p.m.

Where: Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, Central Courtyard
3251 South Miami Avenue, Miami, FL

The 2004 Building Better Communities Bond program is an opportunity for registered voters to vote on eight resolutions that address some of our communities' most pressing needs. These resolutions include improving the County's water, sewer and flood control systems; improving parks and recreational facilities; improving our neighborhood and public infrastructure; upgrading public safety facilities; constructing emergency and healthcare facilities; improve public service outreach facilities; housing for the elderly and low income families; and cultural, library, historic preservation and educational facilities.

The following Historic Preservation Projects are presented in the 2004 Building Better Communities Bond Program:

Vizcaya Museum and Gardens
Coral Gables Historic Museum
Curtiss Mansion
Dorsey Memorial Library
First Miami High School
Hubbard-Alvarez Bungalow

Flagler Memorial Monument

Historic Entrance to Parrot Jungle

Historic Hampton House

Redland Farmlife School

Lyric Theater

Richmond Naval Air Station - Building 25

Virginia Key Beach

Old Miami Beach City Hall
